■ Insurance

People and companies buy insurance policies in case there is an accident or damage to their property. If something happens, they will receive compensation from the insurance company. This means that they are protected against risks to their health, home car, or even financial loss. With most kinds of insurance, the insured party pays the insurance company annual or monthly premiums to pay for the coverage. When loss or damage occurs, the policy holder files a claim to the insurance company. The insurance company will assess the amount of loss or damage to the policy holder and then will either approve or deny compensation. If they approve the claim, they pay out to the claimant, although there is often a deductible that the policy holder must pay. These days, many property owners and businesses carry liability insurance that covers them against/for claims that they were negligent.
