E-Mail message

To: galina_popova@rmail.net
From: jdunger@sunspearind.com
Subject: SMS Information
Date: Monday, June 5, 2:29 P.M.

Dear Ms. Popova,

Thank you kindly for inquiring into Sunspear Industries's new Solar Module System (SMS). I would like to apologize that we cannot provide you with the information you requested; we are currently printing out new brochures that we will send you very soon. Until then, allow me to fill you in on some of the new features available with the SMS.

Developed for normal houses, this system is designed to give consumers a cost-effective and environmentally-friendly alternative to traditional sources of energy. The improved panels absorb the sun's rays with 30% more efficiency than our previous models. Furthermore, it has a battery system that automatically stores excess energy for later use. The battery contains enough energy to power the average home for up to 2 days during occasionally unfavorable weather conditions. Also, next to no maintenance is required.

Before introducing the SMS to the energy market, the independent Monterey Energy Research Center (MERC) led an eighteen-month, in-depth study of the SMS. It found that the improved design is drastically more efficient and will save consumers up to $100 per month in electricity bills.

If you have any questions about the SMS, please don't hesitate to contact me. As you mentioned in your previous e-mail, the sms could indeed prove to be a worthwhile purchase for you. In the meantime, you can expect a detailed brochure to be delivered to your door.

Sincerely,
James D. Unger

Parveen Mirza
Hiring Manager
Taylor Chemist of Manchester
408 Swan Street
Manchester M4 5JQ

Dear Ms. Mirza,

Alban Campbell, Managing Pharmacist at Taylor Chemist of Manchester's Hulme Street branch and former coworker of mine, suggested I get in touch with you about the Pharmacist opening at the Thomas Street location. I am very interested in the position and have enclosed my cv for your perusal.

As you will see in the education and experience sections on my cv, I am a fully qualified pharmacist.-- [1]-. My daily duties there include supplying prescription medication, providing advice to customers, and maintaining appropriate stock levels. I complete these tasks in a safe manner that emphasizes efficiency.--[2]--. This past year, I was even able to streamline our inventory procedure so that it takes nearly 30% less time than before, and received special recognition from my manager for this accomplishment.

Additionally, I have long admired Taylor's focus on customer care, as that is my priority as well. After all, making people feel better is a pharmacist's main mission. -[3]- This must be achieved not just through medication but through kindness, patience, and communication. I work hard to create excellent relationships with customers and provide the help that they need. It would be a pleasure to exercise my skills as part of a business with such similar values.

In short, I believe that I am an ideal candidate for the post. I would be delighted to attend an interview and can be contacted at 03069-990621 on most afternoons or at g.chapman@retc.co.uk. --[4].

Thank you for your consideration. I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Gregory Chapman

August 17

To Whom It May Concern:

On Friday August 11, I rented a car from QuickRent for a business trip with coworkers. I had reserved hear online two weeks in advance and had the confirmation number, 39L2WK, available when we arrived at the airport.

Upon our arrival, the midsize sedan that we had reserved was not available. The clerk told us he could either give us a compact car or we could pay for an upgrade we decided to pay for the upgrade because at the time we were traveling with four adults and quite a bit of luggage. The clerk informed me that I could pay more for the larger vehicle then, and later request a bill adjustment.

I am writing now to ask that you reimburse us for the extra money we paid. My company has been a member of the Quick Rent Priority club for three years, and we have been extremely satisfied with the service so far.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Marina Whittaker

Dear Ms. Whittaker,

Thank you for taking the time to alert me to your experience renting with Quick Rent. I'm sorry to hear that you were not able to receive the car you reserved. Using the confirmation number that you provided, I looked up your reservation and have issued you a check refunding the difference between the cost of the midsized sedan and the premium car, which comes to 5165.70.

In light of your experience and as a thank you for being such a valuable customer, I'd also like to present you with a $20 voucher for a future rental with us. It is attached to this e-mail; you can either print it out and use it in person or enter the unique code for an on line reservation.

We appreciate your feedback, and I'll certainly pass along your e-mail to the manager in Seattle.

Sincerely,

Min-Joon Song

Dear Ms. Geary,

This is a quick follow-up note. Judy Tilbury, the head of the City Specialty Food Association (CSFA), agreed to the idea of merging the Farmer's Market and Sunday's concert into one event during the Summer Festival. To confirm, you and the other vendors will open their booths at the previously scheduled time but continue to operate until the concert concludes. If it works out, this arrangement will become part of future festivals as well.

Good luck with your sales!

Questions 196-200 refer to the following article, e-mail, and list.

Dalemont City Times

DALEMONT CITY (September 8) ---The long-awaited Dalemont Plaza shopping mall is now about 70 percent rented out. Its developer, Laranic Properties, wants to fill the remaining space by offering reduced rent rates to new tenants. "We aim for full occupancy by December," said rental manager Brian Putney. We are especially interested in attracting small, independent stores."

The mall's two floors of stores are arranged around a central dining area. Its west wing of shops faces the Dalemont River, and its east wing faces the main parking area in the rear.

Local retailer David Olson, who moved his shop into the mall's largest space, likes his new location. "I'm expanding," he said. "I may even bring on more store associates. It depends on how busy we get."

Date: October 3

Subject: Inquiry

Dear Mr. Putney,

I was referred to you by my friend David Olson, who operates his tire Sports supply Plus, in Dalemont Plaza. I own Dadar Designs, an online apparel seller and want to open a retail showroom. I would prefer a first floor location facing the river, but I do not want a space next to another clothing store. If possible, I would like a space with a backroom for storage.

Could you send me a list of available spaces? Also, I would be interested in getting a list of the mall's most recent tenants, so that I can ask them for move-in tips.

Thank you in advance,
Gloria Melo

To: Gloria Melo

From: searches@realtyemt.com

This list of vacancies at Dalemont Plaza was generated based on your preferences:

Store 340--First floor space with river view--adjoins a successful women's apparel shop

Store 390--Second floor space on the east wing--next to food court entrance

Store 430--First floor space overlooking river-has back office suitable for storage

Store 460--First floor space adjoining rear parking lot and loading dock-open floor plan

For further inquiry, please contact a leasing agent.

196. What is indicated about Dalemont Plaza?

- (A) It will be expanded to include four floors.
