A musical staff with a treble clef on the left. The staff consists of five horizontal lines. Below the staff, there is a sequence of colorful circles, some of which contain Japanese hiragana characters. The circles are arranged in a roughly ascending order from left to right, corresponding to the notes on the staff. The characters are: ド (Do), レ (Re), ミ (Mi), ファ (Fa), ソ (So), ラ (Ra), シ (Shi), and ド (Do). The circles are in various colors: orange, pink, green, orange, blue, yellow, green, and orange. Some circles have patterns like stripes or plaid. There are also smaller, solid-colored circles above and below the main sequence.
