E-mail

To: Sasikala Sharma
From: Zachary Bauers
Subject: This season
Date: 20 July

Dear Sasikala:

Thank you for giving me the great news. I'm glad to know we have so many subscribers returning for another season and that we also have an increase in new subscribers. Our advertising must be working!

In answer to your question, we still haven't yet made a decision about the final show. I'm hoping plans to produce After the Sun will work out. It is an expensive production, and the budget is still an issue. If we can't afford to do it, we'll have to mail the tickets for the first four shows to subscribers in August as planned. Then we can send the tickets for the final show in September, after it has been chosen. I'll let you know by the end of next week whether we have decided to go ahead with After the Sun.

Dear Mr. Guettera,

Congratulations on your new position and thank you for sending the invoice for the products I ordered. When I spoke with Emilia Katzenbach, my previous contact at Restaurflex, she offered a discount on item RX1800, bringing the unit cost from 30 cents to 20 cents each. I understand that your prices have increased, but The Grametry is a longtime customer. Could you please speak to her to confirm this and then send us an updated invoice?

In addition, customers who ordered from our take-away menu have complained that the plastic lids on their containers did not close securely, and their soup leaked out. We never had this problem before our most recent order last December. I would like to return the remainder of this item, RX2333, and be reimbursed accordingly. Could you recommend a suitable replacement?

Thank you,

Metro Area Business Watch – October

The grand opening of the Ocean Crest Mall in Marlow Bay is scheduled for next spring, and available spaces are filling rapidly. Once the mall opens, business is expected to take off 起飛 just as quickly. While the Ocean Crest Mall is not the only such establishment in Marlow Bay, it will be the first to open directly onto the boardwalk (沿海灘鋪成的) 木板路. The mall will include boutiques, specialty 特產 stores, and a variety of food vendors.

The mall management is hoping to attract business owners from outside Marlow Bay. According to rental manager Barbara Lancer, a number of the businesses that have rented space are new to the area.

“This was by design,” she explained. “The Marlow Bay City Council offered the mall owners a tax incentive 獎勵措施 if we are able to bring new businesses to Marlow Bay. We’re still a little short of our goal to have 75% of our spaces rented to nonlocal businesses. We are offering reduced rental prices on new leases for out-of-town businesses.”

Applications from business owners looking to lease retail and restaurant space will be accepted until the December 15 deadline. Interested business owners are encouraged to contact Lancer by e-mail at blancer@oceancrestmall.com.

Subject: Available space

Dear Ms. Lancer,

I am a friend of Eric Raye, owner of The Shoe Horn, and he suggested that I contact you about a rental space in the Ocean Crest Mall. He told me about a great benefit that he received that is available to business owners like me. I own Edge Fashion and sell contemporary women’s apparel. I have two retail locations in the nearby city of Hazelton, and I am considering expanding to Marlow Bay. If possible, I would like to be near my friend’s store, but I do not want a space that is beside a restaurant of food service. A space on the boardwalk side that overlooks the beach would be ideal.

Could you please send me a map of the mall showing any available spaces that might meet my needs? Also, could you provide information about the size of each space and rental fees?

Thank you in advance.

Tracy Fernandez
